Dear Student:

Welcome to Watsonville Institute of Cosmetology, and we thank you for selecting us to aid you in your journey towards becoming a future cosmetologist. We are a private institution that is approved by the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education. You are entering a field that has been around since the Egyptian times. Watsonville Institute of Cosmetology was founded in 2005 in its current location and has a long history of success. In fact back in the 1980's the old Cosmetology formerly known as Wayne's Beauty College was in this exact spot. Many of our graduates have had long and successful careers. In August of 2004, the college was founded by Mrs. Audelia Andrade and Francisco Andrade. This is a brand new school and is currently owned by its very first owners. Our main focus is to educate these students in the following courses Cosmetology, barbering, and esthetician and get their career started. All the information contained in this school catalog is current and correct, and is so certifies true by Audelia and Francisco Andrade President and Vice President.

Thank you,

Audelia Andrade and Francisco Andrade

Student Tuition Recovery Fund

“The State of California established the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) to relieve or mitigate economic loss suffered by a student in an educational program at a qualifying institution, who is or was a California resident while enrolled, or was enrolled in a residency program, if the student enrolled in the institution, prepaid tuition, and suffered an economic loss. Unless relieved of the obligation to do so, you must pay the state-imposed assessment for the STRF, or it must be paid on your behalf, if you are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of your tuition.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment, if you are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program.”

“It is important that you keep copies of your enrollment agreement, financial aid documents, receipts, or any other information that documents the amount paid to the school. Questions regarding the STRF may be directed to the Bureau for Private Postsecondary Education, 2535 Capitol Oaks Drive, Suite 400, Sacramento, CA 95833, (916) 431-6959 or (888) 370-7589.

The Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) assessment rate for enrollment agreements signed on or after February 1, 2010, is $2.50 per $1,000 of institutional charges rounded to the nearest thousand dollars from each student. Institutions shall collect the assessment from each student at the time it collects the first payment from or on behalf of the student at or after enrollment. The assessment shall be collected for the entire period of enrollment, regardless of whether the student pays the institutional charges in increments.

“You must pay the state-imposed assessment for the Student Tuition Recovery Fund (STRF) if all of the following applies to you:

1. You are a student in an educational program, who is a California resident, or are enrolled in a residency program, and prepay all or part of you tuition either by cash, guaranteed student loans, or personal loans, and
2. Your total charges are not paid by any third-party payer such as an employer, government program or other payer unless you have a separate agreement to repay the third party.

You are not eligible for protection from the STRF and you are not required to pay the STRF assessment if either of the following applies:

1. You are not a California resident, or are not enrolled in a residency program, or
2. Your total charges are paid by a third party, such as an employer, government program or other payer, and you have no separate agreement to repay third party.”

economic losses suffered by students in educational programs who are California residents, or

You may be eligible for STRF if you are a California resident or are enrolled in a residency program, prepaid tuition, paid STRF assessment, and suffered an economic loss as a result of any of the following:

1. The school closed before the course of instruction was completed.
2. The school's failure to pay refunds or charges on behalf of a student to a third party for license fees or any other purpose, or to provide equipment or materials for which a charge was collected within 180 days before the closure of the school.
3. The school's failure to pay or reimburse loan proceeds under a federally guaranteed student loan program as required by law or to pay or reimburse proceeds received by the school prior to closure in excess of tuition and other costs.
4. There was a material failure to comply with the Act or the Division within 30-days before the school closed or, if the material failure began earlier than 30-days prior to closure, the period determined by the Bureau.
5. An inability after diligent efforts to prosecute, prove, and collect on a judgment against the institution for a violation of the Act."

NOTE: However, no claim can be paid to any student without a social security number or a taxpayer identification number.

NOTE: PLEASE NOTE THAT THE STRF FUND FEE IS NON-REFUNDABLE

Attendance Policy

Students are required to attend class as scheduled.

Interruption of theory class is never allowed. Any students who are late for class may not enter class until the end of theory or when class is scheduled to break. Students who are absent with documented reasons such as a doctor's appointment, court appearance, etc...will be allowed to make up the hours missed. All documented notes must be passed into the Instructor on the day the student returns to school. Notes received after the immediate return of the student will not be accepted. If, at any time, a student knows in advance about an absence for personal reasons, the student must receive prior approval from the director. Fourteen (14) consecutive calendar days of absence, with or without contact by the student with the director, will result in an automatic termination. Students who are absent will be expected to call the college by or before 8:00 a.m. for day students and 5:00 p.m. for night students. Upon the student's return from an absence, immediate disciplinary action will be taken. Above penalties may, at the school director's discretion, be waived if the student brings in a doctor's excuse due to illness while absent or if the student arranged the absence in advance with the School Director.
